- Take ownership of the training and development of new colleagues from classroom to 'go live' to academy.
- Collaborate with the Learning and development team to review, update and maintain the learning materials for operational training.
- Proactively monitor team and department performance against KPI, SLAs and support the team leader community to take appropriate action to remedy any negative trends.
- Challenge processes and procedures, identify and implement improvements to enhance the customer experience or improve operational efficiency.
- Ensures individuals are compliant with all applicable policies, procedures and role competency requirements.
- To respond, handle and record appropriately escalated manager calls in line with SLA and regulatory requirements.
- Contribute to the HR objective of reducing staff attrition, staff tenure and the impact of new starters within the first three months.
- Act as a role model and lead by example, an advocate of Lanterns Behaviours and Values, actively working within the ethos they set and encouraging the team to work at the same standard.
- Maintains own mandatory training, product knowledge testing and annual attestation requirements alongside assistance to the Learning and Development team with new starters.

- Create an inclusive and caring environment where all agents feel welcomed, valued and able to contribute as an individual. Ensure everyone values differences and treat both colleagues and customers as individuals.
- Create a culture where agents morale and motivation is high throughout the team, making a difference together and delivering a consistent approach.

What you'll need:

- 1 year experience in a coaching, people management or supervisory role.
- Experience working within a regulated environment.
- MS Office experience, including MS Teams.
- Strong organisational skills.
- Self-motivated and a strong ability to work collaboratively with different teams across the business.
- Excellent levels of attention to detail to ensure your work is accurate and of high quality.
- Demonstrating resilience and agility in your approach to work - we're fast paced and sometimes we'll need to juggle or prioritise.
- Being creative – we love hearing new ideas from our colleagues about how we can do things better.
